About us

Escampar la Boira: a way of living, caring and sharing.

Escampar la boira

Escampar la Boira was born of a life change.

A few years ago, after spending so long caught up in the hectic pace of city life, both personally and professionally, I felt I had to stop. My body made me realise that I had not listened to it for far too long. I needed air, rest, silence and to reconnect with what really matters.

That was the beginning of a path that took me far from the noise, the rush and a way of life too disconnected from nature. I came to a patch of forest with the remains of an old farmhouse in ruins, and I imagined a new life there: slower, more meaningful and more connected to the land.

From that decision, Can Buch was born.

Our Farmhouse

Can Buch, an ecotourism farmhouse rooted in the Llémena Valley.

Can Buch is a 1621 farmhouse restored with natural materials, traditional techniques and the work of artisans. Today it is a small ecotourism retreat in the Llémena Valley, amid nature, mountains, calm and silence.

But Can Buch is much more than a hotel. It is a living space. A way of understanding life through respect, sustainability and care for everything around us.

The farmhouse runs on renewable energy, follows the principles of permaculture and works to maintain a balance between people, animals and the environment through regenerative agriculture.

Every decision seeks to care for the land and give back part of everything it gives us.

At Can Buch, sustainability is not an idea. It is a daily practice.

Our products

This is how Escampar la Boira was born.

Escampar la Boira was born from the wish to share this way of living and nourishing ourselves.

A collection of products created at Can Buch to bring home a piece of this place: wellbeing, local roots, respect for the land and care for every detail.

From the garden, the forest and the farmhouse come handcrafted, limited-production goods: extra virgin olive oil, ratafia, ratafia cream, beers, jams, wines and other products made to be savoured slowly.

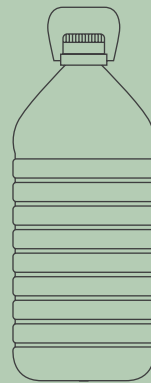

Also everyday objects with soul: ceramics, candles, perfume, water bottles or pieces that keep the natural, simple spirit of Can Buch.

Extra virgin olive oil

Made with olives of the Arbequina and Picual varieties, harvested before they ripen to preserve all their intensity.
A green extra virgin olive oil with a pleasantly bitter finish.

Jams

Tangerine, almond and rosemary jam

A fresh, aromatic combination in which the citrus touch of tangerine blends with the crunch of almond and the sweetness of rosemary. With a more jelly-like texture, it is a jam full of contrasts and nuances. Made with almonds and rosemary from our fields, picked at their optimal ripeness.

Limited production: 350 jars/year
Preservation: 70% sugar

Plum, cinnamon and coffee jam

The intense flavour of sour plum meets the warmth of cinnamon and the roasted note of coffee. A jam with a more fluid texture, ideal for spreading or adding a special touch to desserts. Made with fruit from our wild plum trees, picked at its optimal ripeness.

Limited production: 300 jars/year
Preservation: 65% sugar. Oven-pasteurised at 95 °C

Pear, verbena and lemon balm jam

Made with pears from our own trees, flavoured with verbena and lemon balm. Smooth, balanced and with a thick yet light texture, it keeps the natural freshness of the fruit. Made with fruit from our orchard, picked at its optimal ripeness.

Red Ale

Smooth in flavour, it stands out for the leading role of malt. In our recipes we play with different types of malt to give it body and character, while keeping a moderate alcohol content. A balanced, easy-drinking beer.

Blonde Ale

Light, refreshing and with subtle notes of cereals and fresh spices. Brewed with natural ingredients (water, barley malt, hops and yeast) and with locally grown organic hops. A smooth beer with delicate bitterness and a Mediterranean spirit.

IPA

Brewed with a simple malt base that provides the fermentable sugar needed for its natural fermentation. Aromatic and with just the right bitterness, it is a lively, full-flavoured beer with plenty of character.
